Dear Parent/Carer

SQA Exam Leave 2018 – Pupils Without Full Exam Diet

The study leave period for SQA examinations this year will run from Friday 27th April to Friday 1st June inclusive.

However, many pupils, including your son/daughter, will be sitting fewer than 3 formal exams which mean that granting them full formal study leave would not be appropriate.

Instead, they will have the two days prior to any exams where they are authorised to study at home or within school as preferred. It should be noted that on the day before each exam there will be Exam Preparation Sessions that will be delivered for the full day which your son/daughter is strongly encouraged to attend.

In order make the most appropriate use of the study leave period, a range of activities will be on offer as outlined below;

Friday 27th April – Tuesday 1st May	Pupils are to attend school where they will continue to complete any outstanding course work.
Wednesday 2nd May – Friday 4th May	Pupils are to attend school where they will continue to complete any outstanding coursework. If all coursework is complete and a pupil has no exams in the immediate future then they will have the opportunity to engage in the Activities Week trips that are on offer to S1-3 pupils.
Tuesday 8th May onwards (Monday 7th May is a school holiday)	Pupils are to attend school where they will continue to complete any outstanding course work. If all coursework is complete then a suitable work experience placement will be organised.

Education & Children's Services
Executive Director (Education & Children's Services) Sheena Devlin

We ask for your co-operation in ensuring that your son/daughter attends school, as required, during this period. Please do get in touch if there are any aspects of these arrangements about which you would like further clarification.

Finally, may I take this opportunity to thank you for your support and to wish your son/daughter every success with their forthcoming national examinations and the in completion of all required course work.

Yours faithfully
