Monday	Handwriting Today you are going to do handwriting in Chinese. Please choose your favourite animal from the Chinese Zodiac and learn to write its name in Chinese. See Chinese zodiac colouring sheets. L.I: I am learning about Chinese New Year. After watching the Chinese Zodiac power point and looking at the animal characteristics posters I would like you to make your own Chinese Zodiac. Remember to put the animals in the order they are in the zodiac and say a little bit about each animal. Please make your zodiac as colourful as possible. A suggestion is you draw each animal on a separate piece of paper and then write down some of their characteristics. Once you have then finished you could put them in a circle starting with the rat who was first.	L.I: I am learning to recognise and name 2d shapes.. Because last week you have been working with 2d and 3d shapes and it was Chinese New Year on Friday I have some 2d and 3d shapes to make. Activity 2d Chinese dragon picture - can you name the 2d shapes in the picture' 3d fortune folding dragon. - you will need an adult to help you with the folding. Remember to say how you got on by colouring in the traffic lights or you could write G for green O for orange R for red	Choose from the many Chinese crafts uploaded onto Seesaw. Reading book and questions on giglets See activities on Seesaw
