Then in Google Images, search for 'Ken Done art bridge' and have a look at some of his bridge paintings. Look at the way he uses colour. What do you notice? Does he make sure that the bridges look lifelike? What do you think of this style? How do his paintings make you feel? Part 2: find a bridge near you this week. It's a bit chilly to sit outside and draw, so either take a photo of your bridge when you're out for a walk or find one online. Remember to look really closely at the colours you see. Part 3: draw your bridge in the style of Ken Done. You can use paint, crayon, pencil – whatever you have at home. Think carefully about where you use each colour. Post your picture on Teams. |
